SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

In the year 1956, we entered Blue Creek High School as green freshmen. We elected our class officers as follows: president, Karen Zielke; vice-president, Rita Sheehan; secretary, Sharon Weisman; treasurer, Fred Book. Our class advisor was Mr. Roger Stuckey. The class enrollment was 43 at the beginning of the year, but we lost Freda Howard, leaving us with 42.

The next fall, we came back to Blue Creek with 30 in our class, as silly sophomores. The officers that year were: president, Carl Laukhuf; vice-president, Roger Basil; secretary, Karen Zielke; treasurer, Floyd Foust. During the course of the year we lost Sandra Ahlers, Rita Sheehan, Carolyn Lytle, Deanna Hartwig, Emmett Leeth, Charles Williamson, Donald Clemens, Fred Iler, Weldon Adkins, Doyle Harris, Charles Hockenberry, Allan Williamson, and Jean Capps. Our class advisor was Mr. Stuckey.

Thirty returned the next fall as jolly juniors. We had a new member, Sharon Fortman, added to our class. Later during the year, we lost Roy Jewell and Sharon Fortman. Our class officers were: president, Ellen Riggimbach; vice-president, Karen Faust; secretary, Brenda Rager; treasurer, Fred Book. Our class advisor was Mr. Darwood. Our class play was "I Was a Teen-Age Dracula", directed by Mr. Leslie Ratliff.

The long awaited time had finally arrived when we came back as sophisticated seniors. We gained Naomi Wallace, but lost Robert Doster, leaving us with a total of 30 in our class. The officers chosen for our last year in high school were as follows: president, Karen Faust; vice-president, Eugene Lehman; secretary, Marilyn Bendele; treasurer, Fred Book. Our class advisor was Mr. Darwood. Our class play was "Off the Track", directed by Miss Margaret Robison. Our class colors were black and silver and the class flower a red carnation.

Thus ends our four years of high school. We had many glad times and many sad times, but it was a lot of fun.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

Good evening! This is your announcer, Peggy Williams of television station BCHS. We take great pleasure in presenting this program, which is a special edition of world and domestic news concerning the 1960 graduates of Blue Creek High School.

We wish to thank Floyd Foust, the manager of the Kroger Store in Van Wert, Ohio, for relinquishing their usual program and sponsoring the program that is to be seen at this time.

Lowell DeVore, the world-famous explorer, and his assistant, John Ganger, have recently returned to the U. S. after visiting some newly discovered islands. They brought with them a new species of animals which are under observation at Harvard University by a group of biologists and one of the main professors, Roger Basil.

It seems a new planet has been discovered by the famous astronomer, Carl Laukhuf, and his assistant, Brenda Rager. They call it Temoc. (Comet backwards.)

The world has been shocked with the news of the marriage of Migsa Lapha Lisopen to Marsha Mumma, who has decided to settle down at least for a short time. While on one of her travels, she fell in love and married a prince in Saudi-Arabia plus a fortune of gold and diamonds.

Jim Huebner, the owner of a large restaurant in Latty, Ohio, has recently employed the world-famous cook, Kathryn Monroe, who won recognition as a chef in the Copa Cabana in New York City.

A well-known author, Sharon Weisman, is on a world-wide tour seeking information for another book which will probably be a sequel to her latest which was titled, "The Many Moon Men of My Life". It is at the present time being made into a movie starring Miss Glamour Girl of the Year, Gloria Cowell.

Here is a special bulletin from the Fort Wayne Hospital, where an up-and-coming doctor, Dale Dunham, has performed a major operation which has proved successful; however, the patient is not expected to live. Dale stated that he had received a great deal of help from his special technician, Karen Zielke.

It was announced today that multimillionaire, Clifford Tarlton, has bought the Ford Motor Company. It seems Clifford had a disagreement with the plant engineers and bought the plant so he could fire them.

Charlotte Sperry, owner of a large department store in Haviland, has employed America's leading fashion expert, Karen Faust, and her assistants, Naomi Wallace, Carol Moyer, and Karen Leonard, are so good that their originals are being copied by Paris designers.

The famous quartet, "The Dazzling Dishwashers" consisting of Paula Sinn, Celesta Covey, Marilyn Bendele, and Beverly Groves, are now giving a two-week appearance at the Scott Town Hall. Tickets are on sale now. Buy yours soon! They're going fast!!

In the political field, there is a "hot race" for U. S. Senatorship between candidates Myrna Miller and Fred Book.

Here is great news for the farmers; Eugene Lehman, well-known agriculturist, who resides near Scott, Ohio, has recently developed a new type of soybean which has an increase yield over former types.

Now the sports edition: At the Indianapolis Speedway, Ellen "Hot Rod" Rigenbach, set a new track record with the racer that was designed by Janet Tyas. The mechanic, Ed Cavinder, had to perform minor repairs after the fifteenth lap, however, through Rigenbach's skill she was able to gain back the lost time and win the race.

FLASH!! The waterline at this television station has just burst! This is Peggy Williams, your news commentator signing off: Glub, Blub, Glub

SENIOR CLASS WILL

When, in the course of time, it becomes necessary for a class to loosen the unsentimental bonds binding them to their high school days, they are obliged to make a last will and testament. Therefore, we the Senior Class of 1960, hereby will some precious and some miserable belongings and abilities to the friends, teachers, and enemies who helped or hindered us during our school years.

To the faculty, we will our sincere thanks and appreciation for their guidance over the years. They have helped us in innumerable ways. We hope we may some day make them proud of us.

I, Paula Sinn, will my ability to get straight A's in Algebra I and flunk Algebra II to Rita Foust. It doesn't take much effort, Rita!

We, Karen Faust and Karen Zielke, will our ability to laugh and talk more than any other girls in high school to Lynn Mohr and Shirley Williamson.

I, Ellen Riggensbach, will my ability to get along with teachers to Linda Rhinehalt. The best you can do is try, Linda. They always come through in the end.

We, Gloria Cowell and Kathryn Monroe, will this comic book back to Mr. Hendricks. He gave it to us when we were sophomores. We hope he can keep it as long as we did.

I, Charlotte Sperry, will my ability to talk during classes without being caught to Lynn Mohr.

I, Jim Huebner, will some teeth to Raymond Eckard. Make good use of them, Ray!

I, Floyd Foust, will my ability to sleep in Mr. Jay's classes and still get A's to anyone who has nerve enough to try it.

I, Eugene Lehman, will my ability to stay out of foul trouble to Richard Boroff. I hope you use it better than I did, Rich.

I, John Ganger, will my ability to sleep in study hall to Jean Foust. I hope you get away with it, Jean. I didn't!!

I, Marilyn Bendele, will my ability to talk and laugh during Shorthand II class and still get A's to Barbara Laukhuf. Have fun, Barb!

I, Dale Dunham, will my ability to chew gum in class all four years of high school and only get caught four times to John Tinlin.

I, Celesta Covey, will a roll of lifesavers to Mary Mills in payment for the ones I ate this year in the office.

I, Fred Book, do hereby will three red marking pencils to Mr. Smith. He is usually without one.

I, Karen Leonard, will my ability to blush to Mr. Smith!!

I, Brenda Rager, will my matching skirts and sweaters to Miss Robison.

I, Sharon Weisman, will the ability to get my head caught in my locker and escape without any serious injuries to Diana Mills.

I, Myrna Miller, hereby will my ability to break almost all of my chemistry lab equipment to Rita Foust.

I, Beverly Groves, will my ability to not get detention during my senior year to Sandra Phillips.

I, Carl Laukhuf, will my ability not to talk back to the referees to Dick Gray.

I, Lowell DeVore, do hereby will these binoculars to Mr. Jay. I hope they will save you some steps while patrolling the halls, but don't take it too seriously.

I, Carol Moyer, will my farming ability to Mr. Smith. Good luck, Mr. Smith!

I, Janet Tyas, do hereby will my ability of hitting the junior class play director (Mr. Ratliff) to anyone who can get away with it as I did!

I, Clifford Tarlton, will my ability to drive a car to Don Conley!!

I, Edwin Cavinder, will my ability to win the sportsmanship trophy in my junior year to anyone who is lucky enough to attain the honor.

I, Naomi Wallace, will all the fun I had in my second year shorthand class to Sandra Phillips. Have fun, Sandra!!!

I, Peggy Williams, will my ability to keep my locker clean to Carol Cotterman.

I, Marsha Mumma, will my ability to not get caught talking in study hall to Susan Cadwallader. P.S. It doesn't work all the time, Susie.

I, Roger Basil, will Mr. Jay a portable telephone set with which to check the home rooms.
